

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Resources for Wisconsin Parishes

Catholic Sisters throughout Wisconsin are working to eradicate modern slavery. As parishes implement anti-human trafficking efforts, this guide offers ideas and resources to build faith-based educational materials and events catered to your parish needs.

GET INVOLVED!

Green Bay

The Department of Living Justice provides prayer resources for the National Day of Prayer for survivors and victims of human trafficking. Visit www.gbdioc.org/living-justice/office-of-living-justice.html or contact dptlivingjustice@gbdioc.org or 920-272-8291.

5-stones is networking with organizations to end the crime of sex trafficking in Wisconsin. The nonprofit's name comes from the Book of Samuel in which David slays Goliath with a simple stone. Email info@5-stones.org or visit www.facebook.com/FightTheGiant or @FightTheGiant

La Crosse

The La Crosse Task Force to Eradicate Modern Slavery is led by the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration, the Diocese Office for Ministries & Social Concerns, and area professionals. They work together to raise awareness and respond to victims in the La Crosse area. www.fspa.org/modernslavery Contact Sister Marlene Weisenbeck, mweisenbeck@fspa.org
